

NURSE TELLS STORY OF THWARTED LOVE

Declares Man, Whom She Is Charged With Shooting, Jilted Her.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, August 6.—The story of a thwarted love was told today by Miss Olivia M. P. Stone, Cincinnati nurse, after she had been held without bail on a charge of homicide in connection with the shooting of Ellis Guy Kinkadee, former corporation counsel of Cincinnati, near his home in Brooklyn yesterday.

In direct contrast to Miss Stone's volubility was the brevity of Mrs. Marie Louise Gormley of Covington, Ky., for burial. She only would reiterate her faith in her husband.

Nervous and trembling after a sleepless night, Miss Stone recovered her composure during the day, when she first was taken to police headquarters for further questioning and then was arraigned in magistrate's court.

Was His Nurse.
It was while she was riding in a patrol wagon with detectives and newspapermen that she talked most freely. Sketching her acquaintance with Kinkadee, she said:

"That she had met him in Cincinnati in 1918, when she nursed him for a nervous breakdown.
"Oh, he was a very fast worker," was the way she put it.
"That she gave him $1,000 to invest for her, but that she never saw it again.
"That his love waned and she got him discharged from the faculty of the Cincinnati Law School in 1920 after he had refused to marry her.
"That he then had married Miss Marie Louise Gormley of Covington, and disappeared from town—going to England, according to his political friends."

Sued for Divorce.
That she sued him for divorce, alleging herself to be his common law wife; had been awarded $5,000 alimony, but never received a cent.
"That she had purchased a revolver for her own protection, came to New York to effect a reconciliation, had located him and had laid in wait for him near his home.
"In these words, she described last night's shooting:
"When I saw him crossing the street I approached him and said: 'How do you do, Mr. Ellis Kinkadee, you dirty rat, you're surprised to see me, aren't you?'
"What followed then?" she was asked.
"I don't remember," she replied.
"Where was the gun?"
"In this bag," pointing to a black satin bag.
"Then you pulled the gun from your bag?"
"I don't know. An awful chill overcame me. I don't know what I did, but I was so excited I felt as if I could jump from New York to Mexico without any difficulty.

"Next, I was in the station house. They told me I shot him in the knee. Later they told me I had killed him."
Has No Regrets.
"I don't regret it at all. I'm the happiest woman in the world. Ellis Kinkadee is now in the place where the dawn comes up like thunder."
Mrs. Kinkadee, who today went to the morgue to claim her husband's body, refused to confirm or deny the statement of a neighbor that three months ago Miss Stone had threatened to kill both her and her husband. Nor would she reply to any statement made by the nurse.
"I don't care what that unfortunate woman has to say," she asserted. "I absolutely refuse to say anything to newspapermen."
Later, however, she made this statement:
"I want it understood that there is no malice in my heart against the woman."
"That is not the first time she has had trouble with her husband."
"I have receipts for money my husband paid her for blackmail."
"I still believe in my husband and that his relations with her were simply that of patient and nurse."

SALE OF ROAD PUT OVER.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., August 6.—The sale of the Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia railroad, advertised for today under decrees of the federal court, was postponed until September 15 on application of the Sage estate, principal creditors. The application for a continuance of the sale stated that Prince & Co., bankers, had agreed to pay expenses and operating deficit.

This house, now standing, will be occupied as a temporary home for the club now being formed. It is planned afterward to use it as a home exclusively for the lady members.

PROPOSED HOME OF CONGRESSIONAL COUNTRY CLUB

Lawmakers Back Movement for Recreation Place on Conduit Road.

Members of Congress who have taken the initiative towards organizing a country club for their use and the use of government officials are encouraged to believe that they will be able to "put over" the proposition. A couple of weeks ago a circular letter was sent out, signed by a committee consisting of Representative Lohrman, Indiana; Cole, Ohio; Fish, New York; and Band, Indiana. Representative Lohrman states that more than 200 replies have been received, indicating a strong interest in the undertaking among congressmen, government officials and Army officers. The site selected is the old Campbell farm, beyond Cabin John Bridge, out on the Conduit road. There is an eleven-room house with three baths and plenty of land there for a cottage colony.

To Begin With 300 Members.

As proposed club, Representative Lohrman said, it is proposed to start work on the golf course, and possibly on remodeling the house. He expects that the club will eventually have a permanent membership of 1,500.

The Favorable Replies Received to the Circular Letter are Being Used as a Basis for Personal Conferences with Those Officials, Many of Whom, Representative Lohrman Said, are Signaling Membership in the Club.

The membership fee is $250, to be paid in monthly installments of $20 each.

The Congressional Country Club property will consist of 400 acres of rolling and partly wooded land, lying about ten miles northwest of the Capitol. Situated on the high ground above the Potomac river, a wide view of the valley and of the Virginia hills beyond will be had from the clubhouse porch.

Ideal for Golf Purposes.

The property is considered ideal for golf purposes and it is said a comparatively small amount of work and short length of time will develop a good course. Two springs of clear water join about the center of the property and Cabin John Creek flows across one end.

A country house now on the property will be used temporarily as a clubhouse, but later will be devoted to the exclusive use of lady visitors.

Swimming Pool a Feature.
Another feature will be a swimming pool to be constructed within a short distance of the clubhouse, where the two brooks join.

Memberships, which are transferable, will be limited to members of Congress, officers of the Army and Navy, departmental heads, accredited members of the press and friends properly recommended.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses issued today were as follows:
Harrison W. Towell and J. Ethel Hitt, both of Baltimore, Md.
Samuel Silverstein of Charleston, W. Va., and Mary R. Herndon of Lillian Brown, Mass.
Edward L. Fox of Newton Highlands, Mass., and Lila A. Young of this city.
Russell Manley and Nettie Garrett, both of Cherry Tree, Pa.
Irvin O. Specht of Savage, Md., and Agnes N. Burrows of this city.
Frank Mays and Mary E. Sakor, both of this city.
John J. Fowler of Quantico, Va., and Elsie M. Metcalf of this city.
Herbert J. Allen and Ruth L. Cowan, both of this city.
Le Roy K. Maloney of New York city and Eugene L. Quinton of this city.
Edward J. Heranek of Quantico, Va., and Florence Dixon of this city.
Vernie P. Hess of Orange, Va., and Grace M. Wood of Somerset, Va.
James H. Brown and Bessie E. Wood of Charlottesville, Va.

TOWN LEFT IN DARKNESS.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., August 6.—The plant of the Dan Valley Power Company, at Walnut Cove, which furnished lights for the town, was completely destroyed by fire last night, entailing a loss of many thousands of dollars. The town was put in darkness, and this necessitated the least temporary installation of oil street lamps.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TAKES CHARGE OF 300 ORPHANS

Baltimore Conference Assumes Support of Institution at Konia, in Turkey.

Support of the girls' orphanage at Konia, Turkey, where 300 children are constantly cared for, has been taken over by the Baltimore conference of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It was announced last night from local Near East Relief headquarters.

Mrs. Cabot Stevens, honorary director of the Near East Relief, said:

"Mrs. Herman Wilson, president of the Baltimore conference, of the assistance of the orphanage to her organization's charge. The conference embraces 250 chapters, located in the District of Columbia, Virginia, Maryland and a part of West Virginia.

Miss Phoebe Gains has been appointed director of the Near East Relief campaign to be launched by the conference. Coupon books containing sixty coupons, each representing the life of a child for six days, will be sold.

The local relief headquarters expects to see other young people's church organizations follow the lead of the Baltimore conference of the Epworth League.

FORM REPUBLICAN CLUB.

An old-time rally was held in Springman's Grove Saturday night, July 30, by the republicans of Fairfax and Prince William counties. Several hundred were present.

W. D. Carter, a lawyer of Fredericksburg, was the principal speaker. Leon L. Freeman of Vienna, invited date for the house of delegates, also spoke. Sidney Wiley, county committeeman, presided.

A republican club was organized and is to be known as the Fairfax and Prince William Republican Club. The following were elected: Sidney Wiley, president; Mrs. Helen Duvall Springman, vice president; Mrs. C. Lee Starkweather, second vice president; George V. Dent, third vice president; Mrs. J. B. Webster, secretary-treasurer.

Grate juice punch was served by Miss Ethel Busker and Miss Dorothy Wiley, dressed in the uniform of Uncle Sam. The grove was decorated with American flags and electric lights.

MONEY RAISED BY FETE.

A water cooler will be provided for those who use the New Hampshire avenue playground, near M. St., as a result of a lawn fete conducted by the playground authorities there, it was announced yesterday.

Heretofore, there had been no sanitary water cooler. The fete brought a profit of $50. Refreshments, booths, fortune telling nooks and other features were on the program. The grounds were adorned with paper chains, and Japanese lanterns. Occupants of nearby apartment houses hung lights from their windows, giving the scene much additional illumination.

Mrs. Eden, playground teacher, and Miss Oberg, assistant, were in charge of the fete.
